Col. Stay said, "the division commander and his staff and the two wing commanders and their deputies have been chosen after a very careful period of evaluation, considering not only ability on the drill field but also their past performances in ROTC and previous academic grades. We have every confidence that they will do a fine job."

BYU Student Edits Paper Serving The Handicapped

A newspaper devoted to the physically handicapped has begun publication under the editorship of John Roderick, Brigham Young University post graduate student.

Mr. Roderick, who serves as editor and publisher of the four-page, printed publication, states that it is the only such organ in the Intermountain West. The first edition was dedicated to persons with polio and contained articles concerning the treatment of polio and the progress of individual progress in this regard.

The paper is named "The Frontier" and the October edition featured an article by Charles C. Dickerson, counselor of the Idaho Vocational Rehabilitation Service.

Mr. Roderick, a journalism graduate of Utah State Agricultural College, was editor of the first Lambda Delta Sigma book at BYU last year. While at USAC he was the national editor of the LDS fraternity and assistant editor of the school paper.

"The Frontier," published monthly, will be supported by yearly subscriptions of $1.00 each and some donations, Mr. Roderick said. The first edition will be devoted to the deaf.

Mr. Roderick, a Master W. Man in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, is himself handicapped by muscular dystrophy.

'Cosmos' Joins Y For Retrieve Rally Tonight

COSMO THE COUGAR—A new addition to Brigham Young University pep squad is Cos-mo the Cougar, pictured here with of "Wagon Wheel," which he hopes to escort home.

Brickers, OST To Portray Wheel Story

Zooming down from outer space onto the Brigham Young University campus, comes the newest member of the Y yell team—COSMO, the Cougar.

He is scheduled to arrive in time for "Operation Retrieve," the year's first pep rally, to be held Thursday at 7:30 in the Fieldhouse.

To be presented by the Bricker and O.S. Trovata soccer units, "Operation Retrieve" will portray the happy story of bringing the old wagonwheel back home to the Y. Each year, the winner of the BYU-USAC football game gains possession of the wagonwheel. The Y had it year before last, and last year the Farmers won it by a single point.

Joan Poulson, the main attraction of the evening will be the presentation by Coach Chick Allen of each member of the football team.

Also highlighting the evening will be the introduction of Cosmo, the Cougar, to Y students. Cosmo is a member of the student body dressed in a suit, resembling a Cougar. He will do acrobatics, lead yells, climb goal posts, or anything else his Cougar spirit bids him.

Pep Activities All this pep vitality is directed by Dwayne Stevenson, head of the Pep Activities Committee. He is the one who created Cosmo, coined his name, and arranged for Jon Lin Poulson, daughter of Professor Poulson, to sew his suit, and who had a member of the art department make Cosmo's head.

Also working on the Pep Activities Committee are head yell leaders Barry Bright and Dal-lyne Brown; head song leader Marlene Empey. Other jobs are: advertising, Jack Andrews; universe, Arthur Hardy; and mike work, Hank Williams. Coach Stevenson represents the athletic department.

Card Stunts Gene Garrett is working on card stunts to be done for the Utah game and basketball games. He asks anyone with experience to contact him in the Student Coordinator's office.

Brochures containing Cougar yells and songs will be sold at the games. Le Oro Sablin is editing and arranging for their distribution.

Bertha Anderson is secretary of the Pep Activities Committee.

Magazine Scripts Needed by Oct. 16

Writers, poets, and all who are interested in writing, should submit their short stories, articles, and verse to the Wye Magazine, reported Dick Pope, editor.

All manuscripts turned in should have the author's name and address should be sealed inside a plain envelope and attached to the manuscript.

Queens and Quartets . . .

Homecoming Candidates Will Be Presented Thursday

Homecoming queen voting will be carried on by IBM. It was announced yesterday by Bud Smithson, chairperson. Students will vote on candidates Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

All queens and candidates attended a meeting Wednesday evening, and indications are that close to fifteen girls will campaign.

Campaigning will begin Thursday and end Friday, with campaigns to be of a limited nature. Seven posters will be used by each candidate, with a maximum size set at the regular size of poster paper. According to Smithson, candidates decided on the limited campaigning in a special meeting.

All candidates will be introduced Thursday morning in the assembly program, with finalists to be introduced on the next Thursday's assembly.

Plans are also moving forward in other sections of the Homecoming celebration, with preliminary plans well under way for the Fieldhouse Follies, the assembly and the parade.

Preliminary competition in the tri-quarter competition will be held October 31, with place and time to be announced later. Students interested in the contest may pick up applications in the Student Coordinator's office.

Applications must be returned by October 26 at 5 p.m. Homecoming committee members include Dick Wilkins, general chairman; Dorothy Steel, secretary; Nancy Rich, banquet; Juna Abbot, assembly; Doris Bacon, dance; Jeff Pritchett, business manager; Dick Oveson, publicity; Gretta Ballif, open houses; Don Parker, halftime activities; Pat Pomeroy, parade; Bud Smithson, queens; and Vonda Christensen, Fieldhouse Follies.

Film Classic Showing Scheduled For 8 p.m.

"House on 92nd Street," the film classic originally scheduled for 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 15, has been changed to 8 p.m. on the same evening, due to conflict with the pep rally.

'Arsenic and Lace' Opens 3-Day Run

The first presentation of the 1935-34 Brigham Young University Theatre season will begin tonight, when the curtain rises on the opening performance of "Arsenic and Old Lace."

The play will run through Saturday in the Smith auditorium, with curtain time at 8:15 each night. Tickets are still available for all performances, according to Dr. Preston R. Giddihd, director.

Victory Dance Will Climax Friday's Gridiron Struggle

In anticipation of a BYU victory over Utah State Friday, a victory dance has been scheduled for the fieldhouse at 10 p.m.

The dance, a stocking affair, will be highlighted by the performance of "Three girls and a guy," the popular quartet which made their debut at a recent student talent assembly.

HOME-COMING—Committee member gets plans in line for Homecoming activities slated for November 5, 6, and 7.

COW COUNTRY—A portion of the Brigham Young University dairy herd grazes in front of the Dairy Farm. The dairy set-up is ranked as one of the most modern in country.

Extension Service Offers Aid

The University Extension Service provides educational opportunities for those who wish to continue their education, but who are unable to become full-time students. Correspondence courses, evening classes, travel tours and lectures series are offered by the Extension Service. Courses may be taken for credit or without credit.

A lecture series on "Know Your Religion" is offered in Utah and Nevada. Such outstanding religious leaders as Lynn A. McKinley, James R. Clark, W. Cleon Skousen, William E. Berrett, and Sidney B. Sperry will be speakers.

World Tours
Each year the Extension Service provides five tours to different parts of the world throughout the spring and summer. There is a student tour of Europe, starting in June, which lasts for 73 days. The objectives of this tour are to broaden cultural horizons and promote international understanding and good will. It is led by Dr. R. Mark Rogers.

There is also an adult tour of Europe which starts in June under the supervision of Dr. Harold G. Clark. A tour to the Bible Lands with Sidney B. Sperry, a tour of Old Mexico to the Hill Cumorah and the restoration pagament, under the direction of Alma P. Burton, will be made.

Leadership Week
Starting June 21, a leadership week will get underway. Last year there were over 3,000 people who registered for this course. The theme for this year is "Who is the Educated Man?" Some of the fields that this workshop covers are: Bishop's workshop, family life institutes, genealogical instruction, and Relief Society Institutes.

Another part of the Extension Service is the Audio-Visual Aids. Their office is in the southeast end of the Student Service Center.

Hand Milking Only Memory At BYU Dairy

Milking by hand has become a trade of the past at the Brigham Young University dairy farm, according to Professor Grant S. Richards, head of the Animal Husbandry department. The farm now has a milking parlor that includes a four-stall, pit-type tandem parlor, with pipe line milkers. This is a dream finally come true for the department. With the new four-stall milking parlor twenty-four head of cows can be milked in approximately forty minutes. An average milking takes a little more than one minute.

The Animal Husbandry department hopes to start a student project in 1954. Students will be permitted to bring two or three heifers or cows to the dairy to help finance their way through school. The student will receive all the profits. The cows would be bred artificially by herd sires at the university.

which will teach students in 18 weeks to have a vocabulary of 3,000 words by the use of the telephone system.

For any additional information, the Extension office is located in the southwest end of the Student Service Center.

Graduate Awards Await Eligibles

Many free tuition graduate scholarships remain to be awarded, according to Christen Jensen, acting dean of the graduate school.

Dean Jensen also said that several free tuition plus $300 scholarships and several free tuition plus $300 scholarships have not yet been awarded.

These scholarships were created by the Board of Trustees near the close of summer school. Thirty free tuition, ten free tuition plus $300, and ten free tuition plus $500 scholarships were established.

Soph Talent Needed Now

Sophomores are urged to submit their names to the student organizations office, in the basement of the student services center, if they are interested in working on the sophomore assembly, Oct. 29. Willing workers and various types of talent are needed.

These scholarships were created by the Board of Trustees near the close of summer school.

Scholarships are awarded solely on the basis of high academic achievement and are granted for one year, Dean Jensen said.

The Professor Who Couldn't Say "No"

OR... What to do when you can't afford to flunk

Once there was a Professor who was reluctant to flunk the Team's Top Man... a fullback named Priestwinkle, of impressive Physical Proportions but Intellectually a Lump. The Professor sought a Loophole. "Priestwinkle," he said, "I am no pedant who believes that the sole purpose of education is to cram the Mind with Facts. Rather it is its aim to broaden the Mind and make it more Productive. If you can come to me within 24 hours with one—just one—original and workable idea, I shall not flunk you."

The dejected Priestwinkle explained his Dilemma to his roommate, "Relax," said the latter. "Simplest thing in the world" . . . and he expounded a Stratagem.

Next morning the evidence was in. Telegrams . . . hundreds of 'em . . . on the Professor's desk, from practically everybody on the Campus. All bearing the same message: "Priestwinkle must not flunk. Old Blacktop sends his. This Approach is his idea."

Did it work? Well, there's a certain All-American named Priestwinkle whose voice shakes with grateful Elation when anyone mentions Western Union in his Presence.

When you want to Swing a Deal . . . Telegram work wonders. They're grade-A, Done Deal, great for coaxing cash from home, practical for arranging anything from a Weekend to a Job Interview. When you want to get inside the Opponent's ten-yard line . . . let Western Union carry the ball.

ROCKY MARCIANO and ART SAXELL

Saxell Says Today's Athletes Better Than Old Timers

"My pet peeve in boxing as in most other sports is the Old Timer who insists that our boxers of today are nowhere as good as those of the 'old days,'" says BYU boxing coach Art Saxell.

In boxing itself, James J. Jeffries won the heavyweight championship of the world in his seventh fight. Most of today's boxing authorities contend that he couldn't win the amateur Golden Gloves today.

"Having taught boxing for years, I know that it is impossible to learn enough to win a championship today in only seven fights," Coach Saxell continued.

Boxing Learned

The squared-circle mentor pointed out that boxing is learned through actually boxing and no other way.

"There are 100 to 300 different maneuvers to learn, depending on how complicated one wants to get—but only considering a hundred punches, blocks, etc., a fighter must decide in a split second which of these to use. Can he learn all these in seven fights?" Coach Saxell says no.

Body Punch

In John L. Sullivan's time a body punch was unknown. Jim Fitzsimmons used the "solar plexus" punch with success for the first time in 1902 when he won the heavyweight title from Jim Corbett.

NATIONAL SPORT SCENE

by Henry Franke

Last Saturday noon the big fall hunting season began with ducks and geese being bagged in the quarry. For most hunters the take home was reported to be fairly good.

This Saturday deer season opens. Rangers and game wardens report the game fairly plentiful. The deer are supposedly well padded this year because of the abundant spring and summer feed.

Hunting Dangers

Hunters should be reminded of the definite dangers of sprained ankles, forest fires, and food poisoning. We might add, as well as an incidental, that it would be wise to wear red clothing and to observe the laws of hunting.

British middleweight champion Randy Turpin stated in an interview, quote, "If anybody upsets me, International Boxing Club, or anyone else, I'll pack my bags and clear out. I don't care if it's one day or two days before the fight. The fact is, I am not happy here and it's no use saying I am." Temper, temper, Randy, after all, it's just dirty old money.

All-Star Team

The New York Yankees continued their domination of baseball by placing four men on the all-star team which was selected by the United Press. The four Yanks are Mickey Mantle, Yogi Berra, Hank Bauer, and Billy Martin.

Al Rosen of the Cleveland Indians was the only unanimous choice, polling every vote of the special 24 man committee of the Baseball Writers of America. The remainder of the team is Vernon and Porterfield from Washington, Minnie Minsko of Chicago, and rookie shortstop Harvey Kuenn of the Detroit Tigers.

Total Yards

Dick Imer of the Moogans Grizzlies took over first place in total yards gained department, 431 yards in four games. He did this by what was termed the most sensational ball carrying in the history of the Skyline Conference! 221 yards gained in one game. I'll bet Dick knows Denver's field well.

The sports staff had some toughies to pick for this week, but we did forecast the big upset of the week in the nation when two touchdowns underdog Illinois rolled over Ohio State. We also called the Cougars' victory over the Idaho Vandals.

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS ABOUT

DIAMONDS

In the sixteenth century there was a very good reason behind a man giving his betrothed "a ring, a kiss, and a pair of shoes." The ring was to keep her hands out of mischief, the shoes to prevent her from being footloose and the kiss, to cure her of talking too much. Today, of course, the ring and the kiss suffice.

Wagonwheel at Stake As Cougars, Aggies Battle On Y Turf Friday Nite

At Cougar Stadium, with the traditional wagonwheel on the sidelines, the BYU Cougars and the Utah State Aggies will resume their annual battle on Oct. 16, at 8 p.m.

Brigham Young's thus far surprising grid squad will be out to reclaim the "wagonwheel" which was won by the Utags last year in a 27-26 thriller. The Aggies, whom Cougar Coach Charles Atkinson describes as improving and tough, will be gunning for their second league win of the season and, of course, the wagon wheel.

According to Coach Atkinson, the Y pulled through the 20-14 upset win over Idaho without any injuries and unless injuries are sustained during practice sessions the team will be ready for the Farmers. Atkinson reports that old injuries suffered by Merle Hardy, Don Wood, Paul Kochevar, and Dewey Brundage have healed well.

Aggie Injuries

Utah State has not been quite so fortunate, as Darwin Brown, freestyleing left guard, suffered an injury which will put him out for the remainder of the season. Del Ray Campbell, all-conference fullback for the Staters last year, has recovered from his injury and saw action against Utah last week.

Cochran Atkinson, who flew from Los Angeles Saturday after the Idaho game and watched the Aggies in action, boasts 20 returning lettermen, including such standouts as Campbell, Ralph Cavallaglio, and all-conference end, George Hochstetler.

Returning Lettermen

Utah State has been predicted by the experts to reach its peak this year. The Farmers boast 20 returning lettermen, including such standouts as Campbell, Ralph Cavallaglio, and all-conference end, George Hochstetler.

The Cougars, by contrast, are shy on experience, having only 11 returning strikers, and a small number of injuries could do a lot of damage to the Cats' hopes.

Passing Attack

BYU is expected to rely, as usual, on an aerial attack from the modified T formation. The passing attack did not click too well against Idaho, but has generally been good.

This will be the 29th year of football rivalry between BYU and the boys from Logan. In the games up to now, interrupted only by the war years, the Staters have won 15, the Cats 10, and three have come out even. The wagon wheel rivalry is 25 years old. USAC winning three contests and the Y taking two. The wagon wheel was sponsored by the Blue Key organizations of the two schools in 1948 and has been the symbol of the rivalry ever since. In the past two years, the games have been decided by one point margins, Brigham Young winning in 1951, 26-27 and the Aggies taking last Fall's classic, 27-26.

Utah State is coached by John O. Runkle, Skyline Coach of the Year of 1951. This is his third year at the USAC. Coach Atkinson has four years' experience at BYU.

Freshman Cage Tourney Other Sports, Highlight Intramural Competition

With the coming of the annual Frosh Basketball Tournament, as well as other team activities on the intramural calendar of events, freshmen are urged to organize teams for competition in these various sports. Besides the Frosh Basketball Tournament there will be team competition in volleyball, handball, horse-shoes and tennis.

To enter a team for intramural play it is necessary to have a team name, manager, and names and addresses of team members. No fee is charged for entrance in intramural events.

All participants in the intramural program are urged to check the bulletin board for announcements and schedules. The bulletin board in front of the Nursing School offices is temporarily being used for schedules for convenience of those unable to make a daily trip to the Fieldhouse.

Minor Cage Fouls Ignored This Year

ST. LOUIS, (AP)—"The greatest shot in the arm intercollegiate basketball has received since the elimination of the center jump," That's the way E. L. Roney, commissioner of the Mountain States Conference, felt about the officials' action Monday to turn their backs on minor fouls this season—at their two-day basketball clinic here.

The National Association of Collegiate Commissioners approved the bypassing of "fringe fouls and borderline violations in the back court" that had little effect on the "continuity of play" during the 1953-54 season.

This means officials will overlook such things as a defensive swipe at the ball that winds up as a slap on the wrist of the opposing dribbler.

BYU's head football coach, Chick Atkinson, says: "My boys sure thrive on ELEMEN. Less colds and fatigue—more energy."
